

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF ADMISSIONS POSITION ANNOUNCEMENT

Butler County Community College (BC3) is currently accepting applications for the position of Assistant Director of Admissions. This is a regular full-time position that will begin immediately.

BC3 is nestled in the rolling hills of Western Pennsylvania and only 45 minutes from the cultural life of Pittsburgh. BC3 is a vibrant comprehensive community college serving eight (8) counties with six (6) locations and nearly 4,000 credit students. Built on the former Oak Hills Golf Course and a farm, BC3 has a beautiful main campus on 329 wooded acres with a central Oak Grove. BC3 employs approximately 1,000 full- and part-time employees. BC3 has 55 career and transfer programs, with unique programs such as Measurement Science/Metrology, Massage Therapy, Robotics, Electronics, Nanofabrication Technology, Park and Recreation Management, and Criminology. BC3 offers over 100 courses in online and distance education. In addition to degree programs, BC3 has a public safety training facility at its main campus that serves 15,000 students annually for business training, industrial safety training, and public safety – fire, EMS, Hazmat, and police training. The impact of BC3 as an economic engine bolsters the regional economy and continues to contribute substantially to the regional workforce. With a focus on student success, faculty, and staff describe BC3 as a special place with a caring and collegial atmosphere that is unusual in today's higher education landscape. For the fifth time since 2015, BC3 was named the #1 community college in Pennsylvania by Schools.com and BestColleges.com. To learn more about BC3, please visit www.bc3.edu.

Reporting to the Dean of Admissions and College Registrar, the Assistant Director of Admissions will also serve as the technology lead for Admissions communications and outreach. The Assistant Director will focus on the recruitment of high school, vocational/technical and adult students, as well as, assist with recruiting efforts at BC3 regional locations, meet with prospective students, and their families, and coordinate/participate in various recruitment activities both on and off-campus. The Assistant Director of Admissions will also participate in the review and evaluation of applications to BC3 Specialty Programs (e.g. Licensed Practical Nursing, and Medical Assistant) and assist with the management of articulation agreements related to transfer and degree completion partnerships. Bachelor's Degree from an accredited institution in Student Services, Higher Education Administration, or related field required. Master's Degree from an accredited institution in Student Services, Higher Education Administration, or related field preferred. Two years of experience in the areas of college admissions, marketing, or public relations required, preferably in a community college environment. Experience in other Student Services areas preferred. Must possess and maintain a valid driver's license.
