

BC3 part-time instructor placed on leave following arrest

Oct. 27, 2020

(Butler, PA) Butler County Community College learned Tuesday that one of its part-time instructors was arrested Oct. 22 in Ohio and charged with four felonies.

The college has placed Jarod Mills on a leave of absence and his current class, being taught remotely, has been reassigned to another instructor.

Court records reflect that a preliminary hearing is scheduled for Friday in Mahoning County, Ohio.

BC3 will have no further comment.
