

BC3 police apprehend student who allegedly threatened himself, others

Sept. 24, 2018

(Butler, PA) Butler County Community College police on Monday apprehended a student who allegedly made threats against himself and others on social media from BC3's main campus in Butler Township.

BC3 police were notified of the posts at 2:35 p.m. and by 2:50 p.m. had taken the student into custody without incident.

Campus police said no threat remains.

BC3 remains open this evening for classes and activities.

Due to the nature of the incident, no further information can be released by the college.
