

PUBLIC SAFETY FIRE/HAZMAT TRAINING DIVISION
P.O. Box 1203, Butler, Pa. 16003-1203

Dear Chief,

November 2017

Butler County Community College (BC3) is proud to Continue with our Preferred Training Partnership (PTP) for the Emergency Service agencies of Western Pennsylvania for 2017.

This is a pay as you go program with a maximum cost for training. Fees will be charged according to BC3 fees chart (found on BC3 web site). PTP partners only pay course fees for what they use up to a maximum of $1500.00 per year for a Local response organizations and $2500 per City/county/Association organizations. There is no upfront cost to your organization.

Simply fill out the enclosed application and mail it into BC3. We will track your fees so when you reach $1500/$2500 in fees there will be no additional charge for training for the remaining calendar year. To renew your partnership, at the end of calendar year, fill out contract with any updated contacts, then Notification can be by US mail, fax or email.

BC3 takes pride in serving the many thousands of students we have in programs each year. It is our mission to provide the first responders of Pennsylvania with quality inexpensive training and certification. We also know that you want the training in your stations on dates and times that works with your membership's schedules.

Sincerely yours,

Kevin Smith
