Subject: Coronavirus Update from BC3 -Faculty Communication 3/13/2020

Good afternoon,

As the College explores the possibility of a temporary transition to Remote Instruction, I'd like to provide a brief update on our most recent activities.

Today Tina Fleeger and I met with Assistant Professor Travis Timmons, BC3EA President, and Assistant Professor Lindsay Lanigan, BC3 Faculty Org President to share an academic plan going forward should we need to make a change for the remainder of the semester. The plan has been well-researched, plotted and takes into consideration unique variables specific to BC3 while balancing what our sister institutions across the Commonwealth are doing.

We are engaging in in-depth planning and keeping to our mission of maintaining a safe, secure, accessible and welcoming environment for students, faculty, staff, and visitors at all BC3 sites. We are so very appreciative of the ways you have demonstrated support and patience during this time. As things change, we will keep you connected and make sure you are updated in a timely fashion.

Thank you,

Dr. B
